

Black Arts Schedule

Black Arts Festival "75," sponsored by the Cadet Way of Life Subcommittee, will be held next week beginning Tuesday.

Held annually since 1971, the festival's aims are to increase the understanding of Black Culture and to promote better human relations.

The scheduled dates of events are as follows:

April 8

8 p.m. — Film — "The Autobiography of Jane Pittman"

April 9

8 p.m. — Keynote address by Lt. Gen. "Chappie" James

April 10

7 p.m. — Black Arts Film Festival "The Learning Tree"

April 11th

8 p.m. — Cleo Parker Robinson Dance Ensemble

April 12th

9 p.m. — Dance with music by "Crystal Touch"

April 13th

11 a.m. — Reverend Milton Proby and the St. Johns Baptist Church will conduct the services in the Cadet Chapel.

6:30 p.m. — Allied Arts show

All activities will be open to cadets, their guests and Academy military personnel. Services in the Cadet Chapel will be the only activity open to the public. All activities, with the exception of those on Sunday, will take place in Arnold Hall.